Price of Lumber Advanced.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 21.—Announcement was made today that the North Carolina Pine association at its meeting in Norfolk yesterday afternoon advanced the price of all grades of lumber including dressed and rough lumber, the average being 75 cents per 1,000 feet. The advance went into effect at once, and circulars are today being sent out to the trade giving notice of the change. The North Carolina Pine association includes all the big lumber mills in eastern North Carolina, Virginia and eastern Maryland.

A HAPPY MARRIAGE.

N. J. Lewis of Newberry and Miss Alice Blanton United.

The parlors of the Magnolia Hotel was the scene of a pretty wedding at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, when N. J. Lewis of Newberry and Miss Alice, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Blanton, Forest Grove, took the sacred and solemn vow which bound them together as man and wife. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. M. Hartman of Paradise in the presence of a few friends.

The groom is one of the popular young men of the West End. He has been for the past two years a valued employe of the Cummer Lumber Company, and is held in high esteem by his employers. The bride numbers her friends only by her acquaintances. She is a young lady possessed of a most amiable disposition, and is greatly admired.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the noon train over the Seaboard Air Line for Jacksonville and other points on the East Coast, and after a short honeymoon will make their home at Newberry.

The Sun, with other friends, extends hearty congratulations, with the hope that their married life will be one of unalloyed happiness.

Women Appeal to Congress.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—The Chicago Women Trades Union club has decided to appeal to congress for an appropriation to carry on an investigation of the conditions of working women. The investigation is expected to develop among other things: What effect in the number of working-women has on the home life? What degree the demand for women in industrial affairs has driven young girls into business life? Miss Mary McDowell, Miss Jane Adams and Miss Lillian Wald, of New York, already compose a committee from the national federation of women's clubs to secure a government report on these questions.

A Popular Language.

"I've called half a dozen bell boys this morning, and they haven't brought a thing I've ordered," said the irate guest. "Are they all deaf?" "Yes," explained the hotel clerk, "but they can hear through the palms of their hands. Money talks, you know. It is the only language they can understand."—Detroit Free Press.

A Useful Paragraph.

Singleton (reading)—It is said that the last word in an argument is often the most dangerous. Weddery—Would you mind letting me have that paper? Singleton—What do you want it for? Weddery—I want to show that paragraph to my wife.

THE CHOICE OF MATES.

Artificial Matrimonial Selection Has Given Poor Results.

No one knows what type will be the best for survival in an unknown future environment. We often see the extinction of families of parents whom any physician would have pronounced ideal, but their children lacked resistance to the invasion of pathogenic organisms or there was some other defect which made them easy targets for climatic causes of physical decay.

On the other hand, we quite often find that parents below par physically have fine families. The curious unions which take place must be the result of laws such as we find in every biologic phenomenon. Man has the same instinct found in lower animals to select a mate who is more or less different from himself.

Should like types mate, their common characteristics may be so exaggerated as to be harmful and the line perish. It is an instinct of those of great intelligence to marry those of less than the average, for the offspring revert to the better average. It is very evident that if we try to improve the race intellectually by the marriage of like types we will violate the natural law upon which our existence is based. Artificial matrimonial selection has been tried, though the results were disastrous.—American Medicine.

HIS "KINGSMAN."

The Silk Neckkerchief Worn by the London Costermonger.

Speaking of London costermongers, Mayhew says: "The man who does not wear his silk neckkerchief—his 'kingsman,' as it is called—is known to be in desperate circumstances." The neckkerchief is more prized than any other item of his attire and a coster's caste is at stake if his kingsman be not of the most approved pattern.

This habit is derived from the gypsies and doubtless dates from some long forgotten oriental custom. It is very curious that a taste for similar colors prevails among the Hindoos, gypsies and costermongers. Red and yellow are the favorite colors and the oldest. Of these, the coster chooses his plush waistcoat and his kingsman, the gypsy his breeches and his wife her shawl and gown; the Hindoo his robe and turban. If a fight occurs, the favorite colored article of dress receives the greatest care. The pugilistic coster ties his kingsman round his waist or his leg, where, by the rule of the ring, it is comparatively safe.—London Telegraph.

The Origin of Grocer.

Grocer appears in Hollinshed's Chronicle, 1580, as "grosser," and in other mediaeval records it is sometimes written "engrosser," and was applied to the spicers and pepperers who were wholesale dealers in various spices—that is, who dealt in gross—in large quantities, as distinguished from "retailers," who were retail dealers. The Grocers' company first adopted the word grocer in 1373, when the spicers and pepperers allied themselves into a single corporation.—London Express.

Sprains.

S. A. Read, Cisco, Tex., writes, March 11, 1901: "My wrist was sprained so badly by a fall that it was useless; and after using several remedies that failed to give relief, used Ballard's Snow Liniment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend it to anyone suffering from sprains." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A GREAT EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT!

A Magnificent Library Worth $500 Offered Free of Cost!

Something SUN Readers Should Consider

Read the Following Details Carefully:

The Mystery Surrounding the Beautiful Display in G. W. HYDE'S Window Revealed in the following

A number of our enterprising merchants have arranged what will prove to be a most interesting contest between the High School, Twentieth Century Club, Odd Fellows' Home, B. P. O. Elks, Volunteer Firemen, Masons, W. O. W., K. of P., Gainesville Guards, Kirby Smith Chapter or J. J. Finley Chapter of the U. D. C., or any church, Sunday school, hospital organization or institution you would wish to own the beautiful library valued at $500, now on display at G. W. Hyde's.

THE REWARD will be a magnificent library, consisting of 200 volumes of the standard subscription publications of the day as follows: The Great Chas. Dudley Warner "Library of the World's Best Literature," 46 volumes; "Library of the World's Greatest Classics," 30 volumes; the Anglo-American Dictionary and Cyclopaedia, 12 volumes; Library of Oratory, by Denew, 15 volumes; Works of Balzac, 36 volumes; the Library of Poets, 32 volumes; the World's Best Essays, 10 volumes; History of Our Great Commanders, 12 volumes.

Each and every one of these books are specimens of the best mechanical execution, which examination will prove.

The conditions of the contest are as follows: Any lodge, church or school, club, hospital or organization, public or private, is eligible to the contest. Votes for individuals will not be counted. With each 10 cents purchase a ticket will be given by the merchants through whose liberality these grand libraries are furnished, on which will be written the amount of the purchase and the number of votes. The purchaser will write on the ticket the institution or organization for which he or she desires to vote, sign their names and deposit the ticket in the ballot box in the store in which the purchase is made.

The standing of the contestants will be published exclusively in each Sunday's issue of The Sun until October 14th, 1905, at 7 o'clock p. m., when the remaining votes will be counted, and the magnificent library awarded to the organization having the largest number of votes. The Sun will publish in each issue a coupon which will entitle the holder to two votes that will be credited to the institution that is written on space provided for same when delivered to the ballot boxes in either of the stores.

Voting Tickets Can be Secured From the Following Merchants:

A. M. Cushman.

Votes will be issued for premiums on new policies written or old policies renewed, provided such premiums are paid within thirty days of date of policy. For each 10 cents of premium one vote will be issued.

Mrs. S. W. LeGrande

The only Millinery and Notion store issuing votes. Vote here.

Merchants, Note Carefully.

The rules of the contest provide that each merchant shall carefully make a record of his vote on Friday night of each week, sending a duplicate of same to The Daily Sun, on Saturday before noon of each week, over his own signature, including the tickets, carefully wrapping and tying them up in a small package as possible; write your own name and date of delivery on each so that they can be filed away with your records and delivered to a committee on awards appointed at the close of the contest.

THE SUN'S Voting Proposition.

Under no circumstances will an employe of this paper be allowed to cast a vote in this contest.

We will give a premium of 75 votes for every paid three months' subscription, 200 votes for every paid six months' subscription and 500 votes for every paid subscription for one year to Daily Sun, and 200 votes for one year's subscription to Semi-Weekly Sun. Old subscribers get the same number of votes by paying their subscriptions in advance. Every voter should be a subscriber. To the institution securing the largest number of votes in this manner we will award at 7 o'clock p. m., October 14th, 1905, 10,000 votes.

LIBRARY VOTING COUPON.

This coupon entitles the holder to two votes that can be cast for any institution competing for the beautiful library, when properly filled out, signed and returned to the ballot boxes in either the above stores.
